A few figures of a company with market leadership

- Two office buildings: Zouk Mikael offices and Gharzouz Factory. Three production units with a total of about 5000 square meters and more than 30 countries around the world.
- Push the bar to get even better at what you do. 'Achieved' excellence a great deal of commitment on your behalf, but also from those who work with and for you.
- Together with them, develop a 'Service Promise', or similar, which captures a shared vision of what you all want to achieve in terms of service quality. Communicate that promise widely to employees and customers.
